REFERENCE. Sir,

I have the honour to forward the annual list of officers who will attain the age of 55 years during the next official year 1898-99.

The only name in the list is my own. I have no wish to retire as long as my services are required.

I have the honour to be Sir
Your most obedient servant

Superintendent
Madras Survey

Mr Cardozo's retention in the service after 31st March 1898

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

C. No. 8009 of 97

From the Supt. Madras Survey

The Hon: Mr. Fraser C. S.
The Hon: Mr. Henry Bliss K. C.
H.E. the Governor

Dated 11th Sept: 1897.

FOR ORDERS.

Please see the notes stitched with G.O. 1546 of 13th Nov: 1896.

The Supt. Madras Survey now submits the usual list of officers in his Dept over 55 whose discharge or further retention has now to be considered. The only officer whose name appears in the present list however is Mr Cardozo himself whose retention in the service until 31st March 1898 was sanctioned in the G.O.
above quoted. Mr Cardozo attained the age 55 on 18th Jan: 1894 and will be 58 on Jan: next.

The Board's proposals for the re-organization of the Madras Survey Dept are still under the consideration of Govt (the papers are now with H.E.) and as any

I think the extension to be granted. It will be a great loss if Mr Cardoso goes before the new scheme is sanctioned.

scheme which may be drawn up on the subject by this Govt has to be considered by the Govt of India and the Secy of State, it is likely to take another year before final orders could be issued thereon. It may perhaps be desirable to retain Mr Cardoso in the service until such orders are issued and the new Dept is placed in working order. If this view is concurred in, it is submitted that a further extension of ^{one} year may be granted to Mr Cardoso subject to the condition that if in the meantime it is decided to abolish his appointment he will have to retire.

I submit there is very little chance of the new scheme being got into working order by before 31st March 1899 & that a further extension might accordingly be granted
