Note

When the first report was received and circulated, the H.M. remarked that "it shd
"be explained why whilst there "was time to save other articles
"the cash chest (or its contents) "was not saved." Further information on the point was accordingly called for in G.O. 3164 of 23rd June 1896 and the Board now submits a report from The Collector on the subject with the originals of the depositions taken at the time by the D.O.

 The Collector now states that the Cannah was a small thatched building, that the fact that several individuals were suddenly awakened by cries of "fire" and found the roof ablaze was sufficient cause a panic amongst them, and that the Range Officer actually enquired at the time where the cash chest was when some one answered that it was outside the building and that in the hurry and confusion he should ^{at first} have thought the chest safe. The Collector adds that he cannot offer any further explanation on the point.

Nothing said a good many things all the same

D.O. 29.12.47 As the D.O. & Collector are satisfied I submit nothing more need be said
