Proceedings of the Board of Revenue

Dated 11th September 1897.

No. 7478 mso

READ the following letter from the Collector of Krishna dist. No. ⁴¹³ General, dated 19th August 1897.

G.O. 817
11.2.97.
x communicating to the collector of Krishna G.O. No. 817 mso dated 11th February 1897, accepting the recommendation of the Board of Revenue that the enhanced water - rate of Rs 5 per acre be levied in the Gudur Estate with effect from the current fasli.

Adverting to para 7 of the Board's Proceedings, Revenue Settlement, No. 6359 mso. dated 9th December 1896 and 1551 mso dated 2nd March 1897, I have the honor to state that though a protest was made in the beginning by the ryots of the Gudur Estate against the putting in force of the enhanced water tax in Fasli 1305, no complaint has since been made by them in that respect. The enhanced tax was therefore collected in Fasli 1305.

2. The presumption in para 8 of the Board's Proceedings first quoted above is correct. The amount of water tax not collected from ryots was recovered for
