READ The following letter from the Collector of Hutua Ref: No. 4500 dated 23rd
August 1897:—

I have the honour to report that my Head Quarters Deputy Collector has raised the following questions

(a) The scheme for the collection of water tax direct from the tenants of the Guduru Estate having been sanctioned by the Government in February 1896, the ryots of the Estate put in applications for water for Fasli 1306 in the latter part of July 1896. The applications were referred to the Public Works Department for

opinion and were received back in May and June 1897, with orders accepting them in some cases, rejecting them in others and directing their renewal in a third class of cases. Within what date should the applications be renewed for Gash 1307 as the due date expired on the 31st March 1897. Some time before the decision of the Public Works Department on the applications of Gash 1306 were received.

(b) Some ryots whose applications for water for Gash 1306 were accepted in May and June 1897 do not desire to irrigate the lands in Gash 1307; but they did not present relinquishments before the 31st March 1897, as under the above circumstances no orders had been passed on their applications by that date. Within what date should water be relinquished in such cases for Gash 1307?

also the Deputy Collector are in favour of extending the time for presenting applications for, and relinquishment of, water up to 31st August 1897, and I agree with them.

3. The Zamindar of Inrijapuram Estate in the Virgoid Taluk has also applied for an extension of time for presenting applications for water to irrigate acres 379.58 of land in Kesarapatti, a village in his Estate. The reasons adduced by him are that the lands were till recently in the occupation of tenants whom he ejected through Civil Courts and that they relinquished water at the end of March last without his knowledge. As the persons who relinquished water were not the tenants at the time of relinquishment, I think the Zamindar is entitled to the concession asked for, and I accordingly accordingly recommends the extension of time up to 31st August 1897

 H. To the Cultivation season is fast drawing to a close and as the area to be irrigated or relinquished is not likely to be large, I have sanctioned the extension of time for this year only up to 31st August 1897 in the three cases mentioned above in anticipation of the Board's approval and request my action may be approved.

Resolution

The Collector's action is approved.

2. The Cause of the delay of nearly a year in the disposal of the applications by the Public Works Department should have been ascertained and reported.
