Subsistence

Quadir Nawaz Khan Bahadur.

Khatunah Begum, grand daughter of the original grantee died on 15th January 1897.

The whole allowance of Rs 93 per annum was enjoyed by the deceased.

The deceased left four daughters viz:—

- (1) The petitioner Moonawar Begum, the eldest & aged 55 years.
- (2) Jani Begum aged about 52.
- (3) Piyari Begum aged about 48.
- (4) Khyrnoora Begum aged about 43.

The eldest daughter Moonawar is the widow of the deceased Mohideen said and is very poor and chiefly dependent for her livelihood on her sisters and relatives. The other three daughters are all in well-to-do circumstances and live with their husbands and they do not require for themselves any share in their mother's pension but relinquish their claims on behalf of the petitioner their eldest sister as stated by them in the petition. There are no other heirs to claim the deceased's pension except the four individuals mentioned above. It is noted in the list of money allowances printed in B.P. (L.R.) No. 128 of 17th March 1893 that the pension was commuted for a lump grant in 1859 but that it was revived for life in 1884 as an act of compassion. From G.O. 464 of 30th January 1884 Rev. it will be observed that the pension is a life grant absolutely lapsing to Govt. on the death of the deceased pensioner Khatunah Begum. I beg therefore to submit that the petitioner is not entitled to the continuance of the pension to her.

To the Collector of Madras
 The humble petition of Moonawar Begum, daughter of Khathuma
 Begum, a Jaghirdar & stipendiary.

That your petitioner's mother
 Khathuma Begum was in receipt of a Jaghirdar stipend of Rs 7-12-00 per mensem being a grand daughter of Ibrahim Navaz Khan
 Bahadur in the Revenue Board's Proceedings
 No 464 dated 30th January 1884.
 That the petitioner's mother died on the 15th January 1897 leaving four daughters of whom the petitioner is the eldest and unprovided for being a widow.

That it will be seen from the papers connected with the Proceedings quoted above that petitioner's mother had been most unfortunate in not being granted

granted her proper share of stipend.

That in consequence the deceased suffered great hardships and could leave nothing for the family.

That your petitioner accordingly prays that she may be recommended to Government through the Revenue Board if necessary with a view to the stipend enjoyed by the deceased being continued to her in consideration of her being a single widow and in dire circumstances. That the other three daughters of the deceased have relinquished their claims in favor of the petitioner in consideration of her destitute condition. Their signatures are affixed to this petition.

For this act of benevolence petitioner as in duty bound shall ever pray.

Mark of Moonawar Begum.

We relinquish our claims in our mother's stipend in favor of our eldest sister the petitioner who is an old widow.
