Governor of Madras.

May it please your Excellency.

With due deference and profound Submission I, M. S. Varkat Ramier, late Head Clerk Sea Customs office, Matupet, Tanjore District, most humbly beg to submit the India Government order No. 317 S. R. Calcutta, the 20th January 77 and its enclosures (2) with an humble solicitation that your Excellency will be gracious enough to order for the transmission of the petitioner's memorial to the Government of India, submitted through the Local Government on the 11th September 1895 duly registered in No. 626 at Trinary Salt Post office as the same does not seem to have been forwarded though it is now more than 16 months.

For which act of justice the poor petitioner will as in duty bound ever pray.

I most humbly beg to remain
Your Excellency's most obedient servant.
