My dear Stokes

My numbers are falling Satisfactorily and I think that the Special Dr. Coll^{rs}.
(J. Williams) will not be required for more than ten days from now.

The nos. on works, according returns received today, is 43,500 and I hope most of these will have melted away by the middle of October. But if this rain continues the mungari crop will be much injured and prices will not fall so rapidly as would otherwise be the case.

Yours sincerely
H. H. Hunt.
