Read letter from the Deputy Commissioner, Central Division, No. 465 dated 22nd August 1897, reporting that Kavali may be made the permanent head-quarters of the Atmakur Circle.

Resolution.

In Board's Proceedings Mis. No. 4097, dated 1st October 1896 recorded in Government Order Mis. No. 4122 Rev., dated 11th October 1896, the recommendation of the Deputy Commissioner, Central Division to make Kavali the head-quarters of the then newly formed Atmakur Circle was approved as a temporary measure and he was requested to report after more experience had been gained of the working of the Circle whether any

Any other place would be better suited for the purpose. The Deputy Commissioner now reports that no other place is so well suited as Kavali for the permanent head-quarters of the Circle, that it is already furnished with telegraph communication, and that the East Coast Railway will shortly run through it. The Board concurs in the Deputy Commissioner's proposal, and requests that Government will be pleased to make Kavali the permanent head-quarters of the Circle, which will, in future, be known as the Kavali Circle.
