Mr. Stuart Thomas stands as much to blame as he is and apparently he is interfering with the supply of labour for agricultural operations. It is a question for consideration whether he should be told that persons who he used to cause the people to return to their usual avocations.

Collector of Bellary, Reference on G. & B No. 2050
dated 11th September 1897: -

In reply to Board's Proceedings
No. 7285 mis., dated 7th September 1897 I have the honor to state that the contraction of gratuitous relief must necessarily be a gradual process, following paripassu the fall in prices and the expansion of the demand for labour.
Prices have already begun to fall and the recent rains have created a demand for labour which will extend as prices

prices fall and the farmers are thereby able to offer a living wage. The mungari crop, too, will soon be ready for harvest, and in about three weeks the weeding of the cotton and Korra crops will begin. The wage offered at present is seldom more than one B wage and in some places it is less. It is impossible for labourers to support their non-working dependants on such a wage and it will not be possible to greatly contract the scope of gratuitous relief until prices fall and wages rise. Divisional officers have been instructed to see that the grain dole lists are carefully and regularly scrutinised with a view to the removal of dependants of persons who are in a position to support their their families.

2. Until the course of prices is more fully developed I am unable to give the Famine Commissioner a more definite reply to the enquiries made in the proceedings quoted above.

4. The Gazuvaka relief work having fallen in number to 359 cooks, of whom 222 were old women in the D class, the work has been closed, the Kitchen being left available for the old women if desired.

5. All workers having left Pendurti work after the last heavy rain that work has also been closed.

6. The numbers at Dakmani and Padmanabham being rapidly on the decrease, I closed the latter work on the 8th instant, transferring such gangs as desired it to Dakmani - distant 4 1/2 miles only.

7. The Chipurupalli Lavon Road work has fallen to 640 cooks, of whom the majority are D class, practically untasked and never fined. That will be closed at the end of the current week.

8. The only works now open are Pusapatriga in Vizianagaram Taluk and Sakmaru in Buntipatam Taluk, and these expect will close themselves inside of 10 days.

9. I have not received Board's Proceedings No. 7238 of 97 relative to weavers' relief but with returning agricultural prosperity I consider that this may be discontinued from the end of the current week.

Resolution

The replies of the Collectors of Bellary & Vizianagaram will be submitted for the information of Government. The numbers on works are falling off as the season improves. The Collector of Bellary is right in referring to the extreme caution necessary in contracting Government relief. It is not possible, with certainty, to count on any great fall in prices before the kharif crops come to the sickle. The prices in Bombay are keeping up, and, as reported elsewhere by the Collector of Bellary, on the first sign of falling prices in the Deccan, export to other Provinces increases.

2. The delay in the submission of these reports is due to the Finance Commissioner's passport having been sent after him to Bhadrachalam from Rajahmundry.
