REVENUE DEPT

His Excellency the Governor in Council, Madras.

The humble petitioner most respectfully beg to represent the following few lines to your Excellency's benign consideration.

Raja Anup Singh one of the ancient rulers was pleased to grant Sapt pet (a portion of Asom as jagir to our great-great grandfather Haji Sirdi Shai Ali Durush Sahib At the time of our father the said jagir was usurped and in consideration a family allowance of Rs 750 was granted. Our father was getting an allowance of Rs 19 1/2 per mensem. On his death while we were young, the said allowance was discontinued. Since then we have been experiencing great difficulty in keeping body and soul together. Our chief means of livelihood is giving religious education to our disciples' children i.e. teach them "Thoran" the sacred book. In these famine days the disciples themselves are in distress. Where can we get any help? Our position in life is such that we cannot stoop to undertake menial services being persons of a family once in good circumstances as also being heads of the Mussalman sect. We consider ourselves highly fortunate on the eve of your Excellency's kind visit to this place. We cannot sufficiently represent all our grievances in this short space for fear that a lengthy representation will tell upon your Excellency's most precious time.

 We earnestly pray that the allowances granted to our fathers may be continued. and also pray that some thing may be done towards our support in these famine days.

Praying for your Excellency's long life and prosperity - we are -
