Some five years back the petn was instrumental in bringing to the notice of the local officials the fact of the lessee of certain trees in Nalla-daseri tank having cut down 200 trees in excess of the number leased out to him. This led to the collection from the man of Rs 200 in addition to the amount of the lease. The petn then claimed a reward for this act under the standing Orders. But all the local officials have been giving him evasive answers. On previous occasions the petn has been rewarded for similar acts of detection. He therefore prays that an enquiry may be instituted into the matter in question and that an order may issue directing the payment to him of a reward.
