Requesting the Commissioner of Salt, Abkari and Separate Revenue to place the services of Messrs. Greatorex, Brindely and Stone at the disposal of the Collector of Ganjam for famine duty, and requesting the Deputy Adjutant-General to ascertain if His Excellency the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces, Madras, would allow the services of Lieutenants Butler and Nethersole to be utilized for famine duty and would assist Government by lending military tents for the use of special famine officers.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

READ—again G.O., No. 573, dated 14th July 1897.

ABSTRACT.—Sanctioning three Taluk Relief officers for the district of Ganjám.

READ—also the following telegram from the Collector of Ganjám, dated 12th July 1897:—

Taluk Relief officers locally available are: Butler, 5th Madras Infantry, wants three hundred plus travelling allowance in addition furlough pay; and Phillips, nephew of Travers, Police Superintendent, wants two hundred plus allowance. Latter is strongly recommended. Tents required from Military or other department. I believe Nethersole, Adjutant, Volunteers, Waltair, also wishes famine duty on same terms as Butler. If not required Vizagapatam two Salt Inspectors available.

ORDER—No. 574, Revenue, dated 14th July 1897.

Miscellaneous.

Enquiry will be made of the Commissioner of Salt, Abkári and Separate Revenue if Messrs. Greatorex, Brindley and Stone can be spared for famine duty in Ganjám, and if so, he will be requested to place their services at the disposal of the Famine Commissioner and to instruct them to report themselves to the Collector of Ganjám.

2. The Deputy Adjutant-General will be requested to ascertain if His Excellency the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces, Madras, would allow the services of Lieutenant Butler of the 5th Madras Infantry now on furlough and of Lieutenant Nethersole of the East Coast Rifle Volunteers, Waltair, to be utilized for famine duty. He will also be requested to ascertain whether any other officers on duty or on furlough not belonging to the Queen's Own Sappers and Miners can be spared for famine duty, and whether His Excellency the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces, Madras, will assist Government by lending military tents for the use of the special famine officers. Information as to the places where the tents, if available, could be delivered to the Civil Department is also wanted.

3. Ordered that the following telegrams be despatched:—

To the Commissioner of Salt, Abkári and Separate Revenue—

"Famine Commissioner wants Greatorex, Brindley and Stone for famine duty, Ganjám. Can they be spared? If so, place their services at his disposal and instruct them by wire to report themselves to Collector, Ganjám, and inform latter. Can you spare any tents for use special famine officers? If so, how many and at what places; inform also Famine Commissioner."

To the Collector of Ganjám—

"Your telegram 12th. How many tents do you require? What kinds and at what places? Willock has been asked to lend you Greatorex, Stone and Brindley for taluk relief if he can spare them."
