Proceedings of the Board of Revenue

(Land Revenue)

No. 3542 Misc., dated 1st August 1896.

Read the following letter from G.S. Forbes Esquire, Collector of Chingleput, to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, Madras, Ref. on No. 218/genl. of '96, dated 24th June 1896

I have the honor to report that there is an undowed ruined choultry in the village of Guduvancheri, Chingleput taluk. It stands on S. No. 93(b) dry, acres 0.20 in extent and assessed at Rs. 0-4-0 and is reported to have been built by one Thylammal who was paying the assessment to the Government. Thylammal is now dead and no one has come forward to claim the building, though a notice inviting claimants was duly published on the 2nd March 1895. Since Thylammal's death the village Munsiff appears to have been paying the assessment to the Government in view of preventing the sale of the land for revenue arrears. The Choultry is now in great disrepair, and the roof and the walls have, in many places, fallen in. It lies, however, on the high road leading to Chingleput and even in its present ruined condition, is much frequented by travellers and was fully occupied when I inspected it on the 31st December last. As the property has been abandoned, I request that it may be declared an escheat to Government under Regulation VII of 1817, and handed over to the District Board in view of its being repaired and maintained by it.

And the following Reference thereon dated 30th June 1896

The Collector is requested to report the market value of the property proposed to be declared escheat.

Read also the following letter from G.S. Forbes Esquire, Collector of Chingleput, to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, Madras, Ref. on No. 218/genl. of '96, dated 28th July 1896

In reply to Board's reference on General Register No. 3389 dated 30th ultimo, regarding the value of the choultry &c at Guduvancheri, I have the honor to state that the property is valued at Rs. 860.

Resolution

Submitted to Government with the Board's recommendation that the property in question may be declared escheat and handed over to the District Board as proposed by the Collector.
