I beg most respectfully to inform your honor that on the 12 October 1896 I submitted a petition to your honor's address praying that your honor will be so kind as to re-instate me in my appointment as Thaliary in the Kollakutla village Nellore District and also putting forth my claims for the aforesaid post in preference to any others, to which I have not heard anything evince, I therefore beg that in sympathetic consideration to the severe deprivations of life under which I am now suffering, your honor will be graciously pleased to re-employ me and thereby you would be giving food for my poor children.

For which act of kindness & charity I and my poor family will ever pray for your long life & prosperity I beg to remain
