To

His Excellency the Right Honorable Governor in Council
Madras

The respectful petition of Venkata Subba Ayyar, pleader
Nattamgar, Thengarai village
Periyakulam, Madura Dt.

Most humbly Showeth:—

That the head Mansiff of Periyakulam is a place which the petitioner's grandfather had long been in possession of; that at the time of the revision the petitioner's father was appointed as a manigar; that he then petitioned the Sub-collector for the place that has been long enjoyed undisturbed in the family; that the Sub-collector thereon ordered the petitioner's father on the 3rd July 1890 to bring in a regulation suit which was accordingly instituted as No. 17 of 1891 and that the suit ended in the petitioner's father's favor after an elaborate enquiry and the decision arrived at was also confirmed by the collector on appeal.

2. That the decision being appealed against to the Honorable Board by the present incumbent, the Board without notice to the petitioner's father, reversed the decision carefully arrived by the Sub-collector and the collector and gave the place to Lakshminarayana Ayyar;

3. That the Honorable Board in Proc. No. 588 of 6th February '94 passed against the petitioner's father, did not to the petitioner's great misfortune note that G.O. 927 of 23-10-93 did did not empower G. O. 1168 and subsequent orders to have retrospective effect and hence to affect suits instituted before 24. 11. 92 and this suit No. 1707 of 1891 pending before that date could not be affected by it

4. That the Government orders passed in 1894 against the petitioner's father, the petitioner most humbly begs to say, is against its own G. O's and is also against the subsequent legislation Act III of 1895.

5 That according to the regulation suit and the revision rules there in force, the petitioner's father had been appointed by the Sub-collector as being 'better qualified on the grounds both of Mirasi right and experience and to disturb the petitioner's father from a place that has been successively enjoyed in the family for generations in favor of one who cannot claim to be such and about whom the Sub Collector remarked that 'it would be unsafe to allow him to keep in his hands the responsible powers of Village Munsiff he, being a young man of only a few years Service, mixing himself up in Civil and Criminal Cases' is very hard on the petitioner

6 That though last not least, the petitioner's father's Contention had been all along for the Head Nattamagar's place that Carried with it a Salary of Rs10 while the petitioner gets only five Rupees and has to act on occasions when the Head Munsiff's place falls temporarily vacant, the last last occasion being between July 23 to August 24 of 1896 when the other was in suspension.

7. That therefore the petitioner most humbly begs to pray that the place of Head Nattamagar that has been long enjoyed in the family, that has been decided to be so by the Sub-Collector and the Collector and as such is exclusively belonging to the petitioner's father ought to be given to the petitioner after inviting a report from the Collector whose report the petitioner begs to add will in the interest of pity and justice meet the requisite ends

For which act of charity the petitioner shall as in duty bound ever pray

23rd September 1896

Beg to remain
Your Excellency's
most obedient and dutiful Servant
