Note

The petr. who are the inhabi. tants of Kodambakkam village.
Chingleput Dt, object on religious grounds to a proposal to grant a piece of land adjoining the village site 1897/11 to a Christian Missionary for the purpose of Constructing a church and a school house and opening a Paracheri (Parish Quarters) and a graveyard. in they say there is ~~the vicinity of a Hindu temple~~ on this piece of land.

The usual endorsement in cases of this nature is "Para 2" of C Rules & this has been suggested; but it is possible that some question may be asked in the Legislative Council ~~about~~ about this matter and it would probably be desirable to call for a report from the Collector.

REVENUE DEPT.

His Excellency the Right Honorable Arthur Clibank Stanley
Governor in Council. Fort St George Madras

The most humble petition of the inhabitants of Kodambakam Village, Saidapet Taluk, Chingleput District

Most humbly sheweth,

That the petitioners are the inhabitants and Villagers of Kodambakam Village, and they all are Hindus of different caste. That they being landholders & cultivators &c of the village, all the lands in the village except Paramboke are in their possession and enjoyment. That among those lands, the piece bearing Survey No 91 to the extent of 4.30 acres, is adjacent to the village site in which the dwellings of the people are. That this piece of land is very useful to them for letting the cattle stand in it ordinarily, for threshing grain at the time of harvest, and for performing different sorts of Poojals &c at the time of celebrating the annual feast of the ammencail temple, which can be ascertained from Pymash accounts although nothing is shown in the settlement Register. That in this piece of land a small temple also was built by the petitioner's forefathers; and it is in the management of the Villagers. That when they were thus enjoying the land since the time immemorial, the collector is about to deprive them of this land, and to assign it to one Reverend Gopalgar to construct a church, and a school house in one portion of it, and to open a Parachary and a graveyard in the other portion, so as the villagers may be annoyed and be put to inconvenience. That in all parts of this country the Paracharies and graveyard are far off from the village site. That according to the Hindu Sastras, the Parachary and graveyard, should be opened at some distance from the dwellings of the people. That besides, the church and school house should not be by the side of the Hindu temples as Paria people are strictly prohibited according
