Jeppakulam, Trichinopoly,
10th December 1896.

From
V. Gnanasomani Nadar, B.A.
One of the Candidates for the Pro^l Civil Service Examination,

To
The Honourable Mr. D. Duncan M.A., D.Sc., LL.D.
President. Pro^l Civil Service Ex^l Board, Madras.

Honoured Sir,
I beg permission to bring the following particulars before the notice of the Board for favour of consideration.

1. This is the last chance for me to appear for the Provincial Civil Service Examination, as I shall complete my 25th year on 22.6.1897 and thus be disqualified for any further competition.

2. I am the only non-Brahmin candidate this year, and, with the exception of perhaps two, the only non-Brahmin that has ever competed for the Provincial Civil Service.

3. I am the only native Christian that has ever come up for this examination.

4. Last year, out of 17 candidates who wrote the examination,
I stood 6th in the competition. (My number was 10).

Under these circumstances, I beg respectfully to request that the Board, if it thinks it fit, will be pleased to recommend me also — in case I do not happen to stand first in the examination — for an appointment.

If it is true that the Government prefers a non-Brahmin whenever it is possible to get a qualified man, and if the rumour is also true that the recent reduction in the number of appointments which had formerly been thrown open to competition was mainly due to the almost total want of non-Brahmin competition, I venture to think that my efforts are not wholly undeserving of some recognition at the hands of the Government.

For any further reference about me, I beg to refer the Board to Mr. J. Andrus I.C.S. Collector of Tanjore, under whom I have worked for about two years as a clerk, when he was Collector of Trichinopoly. (I have been on leave since his transfer to Tanjore).

If however, the Board is not pleased to consider my request favourably, I would at least beg it to kindly forward this application to Government with any remarks.

I beg to remain,

Honoured Sir,

Your most obedient servant

V. Gnanasiraman
