* The hereditary revenue accountant of a district or certain number of villages, holding office by hereditary tenure & paid by lands - Wilson

The peti states as follows:-

About 750 years ago the peti's ancestor Papiraza was appointed by the King of Karnam of 24 villages including Guruzala and was also made a "Nispaning". These offices and the emoluments attached to them were enjoyed by the peti's family until some time after fasli 1170 the year of the British advent into the district of the peti's taluk. In fasli 1211 the Northern Commissioner acting under the orders of Govt. ^{conferred} ~~conferred~~ the Karnamship of only 6 villages (including Guruzala) on the peti's ancestors and that of the remaining 18 villages was bestowed on others. In fasli 1262 the Commissioner ~~with~~ introduced the Salami system with reference to G.O. of 2nd August 1891 and appointed a Karnam for each village & conferred on the peti's grandfather the Karnamship of only Guruzala and a agraha - rams attached to it. In fasli 1287 the Mirasi right to the office was conferred on a stranger Rama-chandrudu. The peti was then a minor and could not therefore have protested against this. In 1891 when the period of his minority expired the peti presented an appeal
