REVENUE DEPT.

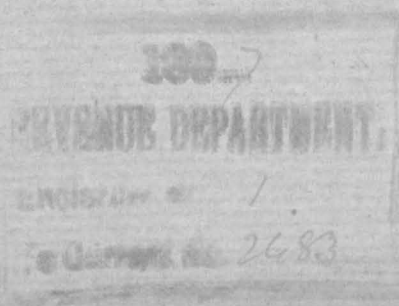

Your Excellency,

I most humbly and respectfully beg to bring the following few lines to your Excellency's valuable attention, being confident to be crowned with success.

I passed the Middle School examination in the year 1889 and prosecuted my studies up to the Matriculation standard, but having appeared for the latter examination in 1891 & not securing a pass therein, I was obliged to discontinue my studies owing to the untimely and melancholy death of my late father viz. Abdul Ghami Khan Bdr. Treasury Deputy Collector.

In 1895 your Excellency's noble predecessor Lord Wenlock exempted me from passing the Upper Secondary examination in view to my admission into the Public Service (a true copy of the exemption order is herewith sent for your Excellency's august perusal)

Since, in every office, preference is given to graduates, it is very difficult on my part to make use of this order and to get a situation at hand and I consequently request your Excellency, who is a noble man of generous disposition and takes the greatest
