note

Both the Collector

and the Conservator think that owing to the large number and scattered position of petty proprietary estates and joint forests it is not advisable ^{or easy} ~~substantially~~ ^{either} to establish checking stations or to prescribe routes and that without these no transit rules can be satisfactorily worked.

NOTE FOR THE SECRETARY.

I have not come into the merits of this case & submit for order the question whether ~~of~~ the papers shd. be returned to the Board for resubmission in the proper form.

To understand the Board's recommendation it is necessary to peruse a series of enclosures, the purport of which might be stated in a few lines - which was reported to Govt. not down up in column.

-pliance with the rule laid down in G.O. No. 2596 Public of 13th Decr 1886 para. 10.
 The Board's attention has been repeatedly drawn to this rule, & it has been distinctly informed that in future cases failure to comply with it will entail the return of papers for resubmission in the proper form. - There is ~~that~~ I cannot see reason why the Board's office shd. not do its work properly; the extra labour, if any, will fall not on the Secy but on his clerks, who so far as I am aware are not overworked.
