SIR,

I have the honor to state that I have carefully inspected the condition of weavers of cloth and carpets at Kurnool, and of cloth at Pattikonda, Roddum and Maddike. I am strongly of opinion that it is undesirable that the smallest avoidable delay should take place in affording this class aid in a practicable form. My enquiries go to show that the rates hitherto offered weavers in this District are either not reasonable, or the nature of aid intended by Government has not been correctly understood by them. In the places named, I gathered data that showed that the rates offered at Admi were exactly correct from the point of labour and time necessary. Details of my inspection I purpose to forward subsequently, but in the meantime, I think it right to state that no doubt remains in my mind that it terms hitherto allowed in Kurnool are not accepted not because the measure looked like a profit, but because he could not reasonably hope to fulfil the task on the terms stated, and thus gain sufficient nourishment. In an interview with the Agt Collector, Kurnool, on this subject today, he informed me that the matter of rates had been referred by the Revenue Board to the Head Assistant Collector for report. This must imply a considerable delay before it can be decided whether the Admi or Kurnool rates are correct. Under these circumstances, I would advise the adoption of the Admi rates pending further enquiry, and ~~propose~~ that relief on these terms be offered at once. As this change is not likely to be readily understood, care should be taken to see that in notifying it to the measurees they are made to understand that the terms are different from those originally suggested.
