No. 461 Miscellaneous.

READ the following letter from the Collector of Anantapur, dated 16th January 1897 Ref on G.O. No. 94 of 97:-

Under Section 26 of the Famine Code, I have the honor to urge, for the consideration of the Board and Government, the necessity for giving relief to two of my Divisional Officers. In the course of the next week or so, three works will have been started in Tadpatri and two in Gooty. There is already one work in progress in the former taluk. Considering that agricultural operations are practically at a standstill and well-sinking extremely difficult in the affected parts of both these Taluks, it

& the D.P.O.
I think it is desirable to assign the Dist. Officer in the District of Anantapur to the District of Anantapur. It is probable that he might be appointed for that purpose to deal with the cases of both Divisions as has been arranged in Bellary. I do not think it desirable to burden the District with heavy work in addition to his own. The Officer with nothing else to do except the capacity of dealing with the various legal work of the two Divisions and if retained at Anantapur itself he will be left in charge of the District when the Collector is absent. If relief works are opened, in view of famine conditions, it is more necessary to appoint an ass't. to the Dist. Officer than to the Dist. Officer.

I give you. I have explained the reasons for recommending this. It is absolutely necessary, for I don't think it is so in any other part.

Sd/- J. J. J. The many much suggested by the Sec. might do, to start with.

is probable that the works will be fairly attended, and that the attendance will steadily rise. The Deputy Collector, Gooty, applies for relief and reports that, in the present uncertain state of his movements, consequent upon the character of the season, he finds it impossible to fix camps for the disposal of Criminal Cases, original and appeal. The Deputy Collector's file is rather heavy. The number of appeals filed last year (1896) is 124 and that of original cases 31. About 8 cases are awaiting trial, of which in five the accused appear to be under remand. Five appeals are also pending and in some of them, the appellants are prisoners in jail. Even if it were possible for the Divisional Officer to cope with his ordinary work in addition to the special duties connected with famine relief, one obvious result of such an arrangement would be to drag the pleaders and parties across the Division, as the work spots of of the proposed relief works lie in opposite and distant corners of the Division. There will also be considerable hardship to appellants in jail. Further, it seems to me that, with the jamabandi close at hand and the prospect of an expanded programme of relief works as distress deepens, it would be a mistake to suppose that the Divisional Officer can long continue to do justice to his ordinary and special functions. I have therefore the honor to submit that, in my opinion, the time has come for relieving Mr. R. Ry. Narayana Iyer of all his magisterial and routine work and appointing a special officer to look after the same.

2 I would also take this opportunity of urging that the Head Assistant Collector also requires some relief. As reported in my last fortnightly narrative, the condition of the cooly classes of the Dharmavaram

Taluk

Taluk is by no means Satisfactory and requires special watchfulness. Though two of his taluks and a greater portion of the third are at present unaffected, it cannot be lost sight of that his Division is a very extensive one, and the criminal work proportionately heavy. I will not, however, apply for a separate officer for this Division, but, if the Board sees no objection, I would suggest that, with the concurrence of the High Court, the District himself of Pennkonda may be invested with I class powers and empowered to hear appeals from the 2nd class Magistrates in the Division.

Resolution

Submitted for the orders of Government, with the Board's recommendation that an officer may be at once appointed

appointed under Section 26 of the Famine Code to relieve the Divisional officer, Gooty, of his ordinary duties.

2. The Board also supports the Collector's recommendation for giving relief to the Head Assistant Collector, if there be no objection to the course proposed.
