The Dy. Tahsildar of Pithapur assesses the petli to an income tax of Rs 10 for the year 1898-99. He objects to the tax but the Dy. Tahsildar confirms it. Appeals against the tax to the Tahsildar, the Dy. Coll., and the Coll. were all made in vain and the petli had at last to pay the tax that year. The same amount of tax has again been imposed on the petli by the Dy. Tahsildar for the year 1899-00. The petli thereupon presents a petition to the officer objecting to the tax. But the Dy. Tahsildar who came to the village for enquiring into the matter confirmed the tax although the village Mansif & the Karnam deposed that the petli was not carrying on any kind of trade. The petli then appeals to the Ho. Quarters Dy. Coll. who confirms the tax solely on the ground of the petli having paid it last year. The petli submits that he is in receipt of only Rs 100 per annum the income from an inam he enjoys.
