The peti and her late husband were in the enjoyment of a Karnikam inam in Thangabur village. Six or seven years after the death of her husband, the peti and certain other women relatives to her who were also in the enjoyment of certain inams were compelled by Sayyid Muhammad Ali Khan Bahadur the Kottapeta Nawab to relinquish these inams in his favour and in return receive an annual allowance of Rs 216 each. This allowance has been paid to all except to the peti. A sum of Rs 216. The allowance for the last 6 years is now due to the peti. She presented four petitions to the Kottapeta zamindar who issues the enclosed taluk on the first petition stating that her allowance with the allowances of all the women above referred to have been paid to one of them Subbamma. Subbamma has nothing to do with the peti who is under the protection of her brothers. The peti appealed to the Bangana Palle Nawab in vain. She prays that the Govt will be pleased to interfere & obtain for her the allowance ~~which~~ ⁱⁿ question.
