MOST HUMBLY SHEWETH,

That your Excellency's humble memorialist most respectfully and humbly begs to submit the following for Your Excellency's favorable consideration and importune Your Excellency to redress his real and distressing grievance with that ready and even handed justice with which Your Excellency is proverbially known to discuss the rights and wrongs of every person, however humble or low one's station in life may be and to redress the wrongs of the weakest of Her Gracious Majesty's Loyal subjects and faithful servants.

That Your Excellency's humble memorialist served the British Government 36 years and obtained a Pension.

In 1880 in Rumpa War with the 36th Regiment M. I.
