SIR,

A sum of Rs 2-12-0 to be paid annually from the Collections of Varagamin village, Sankaranainarkoil Taluk, has been assigned for the maintenance of a flower garden in that village. The inamdar one Rudrappa Naick died 10 years ago and the inam was registered in the name of his minor sons noted on the margin. The payment of the allowance was last made in Fasli 1297 and since then the allowance was not claimed owing to dissension among the guardians of the minors — their mother and her brother.

have attained their majority and have now put in a claim to the allowance with arrears. It has been reported by the Tahsildar that during the time when the inamdars were minors, the flower garden was maintained by their guardians, that the inamdars are now maintaining the same and that the flowers garden is in good condition.

3. Under standing order No. 131 Rule 7 allowances, the payment of which has not been sought for more than six years, should be struck off the registers and all arrears forfeited. As however the allowance is held under permanent title and as the claim was made in Fasli 1306 i.e. within 12 years from the year of last payment Fasli 1297, I have the honor to request that Government

Government will be pleased to re-admit the claim and order payment from Fasli 1306.
