The peti. complains that the Ag village Munsif of his village has a grudge against him for his having petitioned the local authorities to confer on him the vacant munsif office of the village. He subjects the peti. to much inconvenience and trouble by attaching property belonging to him and by placing obstacles in the way of the peti. baling out water to his land. The entire village joins with the Ag village Munsif in persecuting the peti. The peti. therefore prays for an enquiry into the matter and for justice.
