REVENUE DEPT.

To His Excellency The Governor in Council

Fort St George Madras.

The humble petition of Muzavar Mahamed Ghousa said
appellant in second appeal
No. 1478/95 on the file of the High Court of Judicature at Madras.

Sheweth,

1. That petitioner is a Mahomedan inhabitant and a Muzavar (employee) attached to the service of a Masjid in Kandakur in Bellary District.
2. That as such servant petr is entitled to the eastern moiety of a piece of dry Inamland 3-25-acres in extent (vide exhibit A).
3. That while so one Medemonda & others unlawfully took possession of petr's land under a fraudulent lease.
4. Petitioner brought this to the notice of Govt about July 89 when he received an endorsement that he should apply to the local authority & the Board.
5. Petitioner applied to the Revenue Board & he was referred to the collector. The latter being applied to referred petr to a Civil Court.
6. Petitioner filed a suit in the District Munsiff Court of Kanigiri in O.S. No. 232/91 to establish his right to recover possession of his portion of the said Inamland.

and he obtained a decree in his favor (vide (Decree & judgment of the D. Munsiff) enclosed.

7. That defendants appealed to the District Court which reversed the said decree without fully going into the merits & in the absence of petitioners.

8. Petr. appealed to the High Court against the latter decree & in doing so, was out of time owing to unavoidable circumstances (vide delay petition enclosed)

9. The High Court would not excuse delay & dismissed the appeal for that sole reason.

10. Petitioner begs to appeal to Your Excellency urging that petitioners welfare & condition are spoiled by the refusal of the High Court to excuse petr's delay which is owing to reasonable cause. Illness is not at man's command. Petr.
prays Your Excellency to peruse
the records of the case and to pass such favorable orders as to Your Excellency may seem proper under the circumstances of the case & in the interest of your humble petitioners.
