The peti. states as follows:-

From time immemorial the peti. has been enjoying certain inam lands in his village with two other shareholders. The assessment on these lands was recently fixed at Rs 173-6-3. Two of the shareholders including the peti. paid their portion of the shist. But as the third Lakshmana Naidu failed to pay his portion amounting to Rs 26-6-3, the Tahsildar threatened to ~~attach~~ put up for auction the whole extent of the inam lands and recover the above amount. The peti. protested against this and requested that officer to attach the moveable property of the shareholder who did not pay. But the Tahr. refused & went on circuit. The peti. then offered to pay the assessment due by Lakshmana Naidu but the Tahr., who wanted to place one P. Gopal Rao in possession of the lands, ~~and~~ avoided meeting the peti. and without the knowledge of the latter has the lands sold in auction for Rs 227 to the above Gopal Rao. The peti. was made aware of this and presented a complaint to the Collr. who directed a fresh auction sale to be held. The Tahsildar evaded this and sent an official to the village to demand payment of the arrears from the peti. The peti. was engaged elsewhere and a civil suit was filed against him which was decided in his favour. The peti. requests that the matter may be enquired into, that the sum of Rs 26-6-3 referred to above may be collected from Lakshmana Naidu & that the lands in question may be handed over to him as they are the only source of his maintenance.
