The petrs state that the Zamindar of Sandaiyur has leased out to them the right of drawing Sweet toddy from the palmyra trees of the topes in his Zamindari. They have been in undisturbed enjoyment of this right - But some time back the Salt and Abkari petty officers of Peraiyur range and the peons inspected the palmyra trees, mistook the sweet toddy which the petrs had drawn for toddy and charged them before the Magte. of Tirumangalam who levied a fine of Rs 5 on each of the petrs. ordered that a sum of Re 1-8 should be collected from them for each palmyra tree. As the Abkari officers in question did not examine well what they alleged to be toddy and as the fine imposed is unjust the petrs pray that the amount (Rs 26 fine (Tree-tax Rs 6) collected from them may be refunded & that they may be protected from the oppression of the Abkari officers.
