To,

His Excellency the Right Honorable Governor in Council
Port Louis Island of Saint Croix
Mauritius

May it please your Lordships

In Continuation of my appeal petition to your Lordships dated 26th Ultimo, I your Lordships poor and humble petitioner B. Morales late Chief Supt of Sea Customs Rule Labourbon Island, most respectfully beg to Confirm my Categorie of the 4 Instant as follows.

" Adverting my appeal 26th Ultimo, I Humbly submit my Case Concerned in Same Case and suspended with me from provided in Collectorate Sincerely.
My Whole Service 16 years in said Revenue.
I pray to take pity and provide me in Collectorate instead of Salt Revenue.
Despensin expires 16th Instant.
Further I humbly beg to submit that of the 16 years being the period of My whole Service I was not Clerk for 11 years in the office of the Ag Tabulator, 4 Clerk of the Tab Collector, at Table Cloth, And 4 years as Sea Customs Supt at Rule Pte, where I was, to my great Misfortune, put into troubles, not for any dishonesty or other Culpable Negligence or Relaxation of my duties as a public Servant, but for following up the long practice of my predecessors in retaining certain miscellaneous Collections of Exceptional Nature for a day or two in the office Custody, solely for the purpose of some Corrected returns. The Collector himself admits that there is no fault of any kind, while he distinctly remarks that the Clerk is guilty of temporary misappropriation. The following is the punishment given me and the Clerk of Dwarkah will, in itself show how severe and disproportionate. So far as it concerns me. my punishment Clerk's punishment

(a) Suspension for six weeks. (a) Suspension for (b) Transfer from independent Six months.
to ministerial position. N.B. Transfer in (c) Reduction of an increment his Case is not scale of Rs 12 a month a punishment to the clerk in the Shape of Port duties as it is made in consequence of medical fees the Land Rev. dept (d) Transfer to the interior at Gogo Dwarkaham, Abkary dept instead of two about 20 miles the Land Revenue dept from Kulapta
(e) Posting to a plain Sergeant a more convenient District at a distance of healthy place Several 100 miles from Ratlam than the latter.

I trust Lordship humble petitioner will not unjustly beg to state that I have now been transferred to Sedamiaul Circle as Sub Inspector 5th Grade in the Salt and Abkary dept.
I have 15 years' Service only in the Land Revenue Line. I am a novice to the works of the Salt dept. I have to study Manners in the dept and follow Manners and Customs of different Castes that may come in Contact with. Belong to peculiar Caste called Varavat or Barathers, eating meat Christians, leaving in Coastal places, i.e. in Salt-Cotta and its Surroundings. Oda-maniam is a foreign and distant place where no Soul of my Caste and Creed Can be found. Moreover one females are strictly prohibited by Custom, from leaving their own and residing in other distant and foreign places. The Manners and Customs of my Caste are different from that of ordinary Hindus.
Especially in the time of Sickness or Similar difficulties, the Sufferings of a native Christian like me, are great in the midst of rigid and bigoted Hindus. In Consideration of the above Circumstances, I humbly beg pardon to Submit to your Honour Lordship, that to post me in a distant and Strange place, especially to Odamaniam is a very hard punishment, more or less Similar to that of transportation imposed on a Convict of heinous offence.
Under the Circumstances, I Most humbly beg that your Lordship May be graciously pleased to Correct the the Subpenaes and transfer me to the Land Revenue dept instead of to the Salt dept. for which act of kindness and charity I shall as in duty bound ever pray

With due deference & loyal submission I beg to remain

Most noble Lord

Your Lordships most obt & humble Servt
