Syed Ghouse-ul-Azam, the holder of a service hereditary yeomiah at Tiruvannamalai, registered as No. 46 in the printed list of yeomiahs submitted to the Board on the 28th February 1872, died in October 1897. His sons, Syed Shah Idulla Hussaini, alias Badai Piran and Syed Shah Sulaiman Hussaini, pray for the registry of the yeomiah in their names.	An annual yeomiah of Rs. 84-5-0 paid by deduction from the beriz of Munandal village, Tiruvannamalai taluk.	On the 28th September 1808, Mr. Ravenshaw, the then Principal Collector of South Arcot, issued a certificate under the orders of the Board confirming the yeomiah in the name of the original grantee Sulaiman Shah, whose name appeared in the list of yeomiahdars, &c., received from the darbar of His Highness the late Nabob, although he held no sunnud in support of the grant.	For service in the mosque at Tiruvannamalai.	The last-holder Syed Ghouse-ul-Azam died on the 2nd October 1897. He was the son-in-law of the original grantee Sulaiman Shah.	Enjoyed the yeomiah in full.	The deceased left two sons and one grandson— (1) Syed Shah Idulla Hussaini alias Badai Piran (eldest son). (2) Syed Shah Sulaiman Hussaini (second son). (3) Syed Shah Hussaini Piran (minor grandson, i.e., third son's son).	Submitted for the orders of Government. 2. On the death of the original grantee Sulaiman Shah in 1840, the yeomiah allowance of Rs. 84-5-0 per annum was renewed in the name of his son-in-law Syed Ghouse-ul-Azam as his nearest male relative in G.O. No. 1168, dated 12th November 1846. In fasil 1276, the ready-money allowance was commuted into an assignment of land revenue and the Board approved of it in Board's Proceedings, No. 16, dated 4th January 1872. In 1886, the land revenue assignment was resumed and the allowance was ordered to be paid by beriz deduction in Board's Proceedings, No. 1372, dated 17th June 1886. The last holder Syed Ghouse-ul-Azam died in October 1897, and the services attached to the mosque are now being performed by his two sons who claim the registry of the yeomiah in their joint names. As the allowance is a hereditary allowance granted for service, I recommend that the yeomiah may be continued in the name of the eldest son Syed Shah Idulla Hussaini, alias Badai Piran.

ORDER—No. 125, Revenue, dated 2nd March 1898.

Miscellaneous.

The continuance of the yeomiah allowance of Rs. 84-5-0 per annum enjoyed by the deceased Syed Ghouse-ul-Azam in the name of his eldest son, Syed Shah Idulla Hussaini, alias Badai Piran, is sanctioned as recommended by the Collector.
