THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT, REVENUE DEPARTMENT,
MADRAS.

SIR,

Adverting to G.O. No 404, Revenue, dated 28th May 1897, I have the honor to report that, in this district, the only case in which the ceremonial allowance lapsed to Government since receipt of G.O. No 374, Political, dated 18th June 1892 is that disposed of in G.O. No 4486, Revenue, dated 8th November 1895.

2. From G.O. dated 28th March 1894, No 231, Revenue, it will be seen that the annual allowance of Rs 44-8-10 which had been granted for the performance of the Service called "asari shariff" at Mailapur was made a life grant to Abasee Begum on the basis of the G.O. in the Political Department, quoted above and the case therefore requires re-investigation with reference to G.O. Political, of 4th June 1896 No 354.

3. From the history of the case given in Mr. Starrock's letter dated 31st July 1893 printed in G.O.

No 231, Rev
of 28th March 1894 quoted above.

Ref

ref on re 171 C 183, I am inclined to think that the allowance should be viewed more as a service, than a personal grant, and it is quite evident that it has all along been annexed to the actual service, whether in the family of the original grantee or otherwise.
If this view be accepted, I am of opinion that its resumption should be cancelled and that it should be revived and paid to the person actually performing the service.

4. I caused enquiries to be made and ^{vide} find that since the death of Abasee Begum, ^{statements} her husband's sister Amir Bi (who is also ^{enclosed} stated to be cousin to Abasee Begum) has been regularly performing the service at her own expense. Her petition of September 1897, praying that the yeomiah may be registered in her name and that the arrears up to date disbursed to her, is submitted for favorable consideration and orders.

5. The usual tabular statement is enclosed.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

J. M. Littlewood
a collector.

For orders

In G.O. no. 372
Political dated the 18th June 1892, the Govt held that ceremonial allowances granted for the performance of service which are merely mustahab (meritorious) should be treated as temporary and be discontinued.

On the strength of this order, in G.O. no. 231 of 28.3.
94, an allowance of Rs 44-3-10 which per annum which was originally granted for services connected with an 'asari-sharif' at Mylapore and which was being continued till then as a perpetual service grant, was ordered to be resumed after the death of the then holder Abasee Begum. This woman died in February 1895 and the yeomiah was accordingly treated as having having lapsed to Govt.

from that date.

Subsequently, however, the Govt having decided ~~in 1896~~ not to give effect to the principle laid down in G.O. No 372 of 18.6.92, and that allowances should be resumed only when the services had ceased to be performed or were not rendered with efficiency, and that the cases which had been dealt with in the strength of the G.O. of June 1892 should be ^B reconsidered, all Collectors were asked in G.O. No 404 Revd, 28.5.
97. to scrutinize such cases and report them to Govt for orders.

In the current read above, the Collector of Madras accordingly brings to notice the fact that the case of
referred requires reconsideration. See

Hee is of opinion that the order directing the resumption of the allowance on Abbass Begum's death should be Cancelled and that the Zemindar should be paid to Abbass Begum's husband's sister, Amin Bi who is reported to have been regularly performing the service since the death of the last holder, at her own expense.

It is submitted that the Collector's view may be accepted and that the ~~payment~~ Continuance of the allowance to Amin Bi, with effect from the date of Abbass

Sanctioned.

The Political order No 256 of 14 April 97 clearly lays down that all these cases are to be re-examined.
It seems a pity however to review this grant which the assumption of which has not been objected to by those chiefly concerned in the grant & the community.

Whe
1-3-98

The letter from Amir Bi. to the Skeitor is dated Sept 1897.
The allowance has been in abeyance since Feb 95, & for 2 1/2 years no claim was made.

If no claim was made, it was because an order had been passed a year before Abbasi Begum's death. We cannot however take advantage of the period of abeyance which is all due to ourselves. The allowance will be continued.

ABSTRACT.—Communicating to all Collectors, for information and guidance, G.O., No. 256, Political, dated 14th April 1897, and directing them to report to Government all cases of yeomiah allowances resumed by Government on the strength of G.O., No. 374, Political, dated 18th June 1892.

READ—the following letter from J. N. ATKINSON, Esq., Acting Collector of Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated 8th February 1898, Ref. No. 567-G and B :—

Adverting to G.O., No. 404, Revenue, dated 28th May 1897, I have the honour to report that, in this district, the only case in which the ceremonial allowance lapsed to Government since receipt of G.O., No. 374, Political, dated 18th June 1892, is that disposed of in G.O., No. 4486, Revenue, dated 8th November 1895.

2. From G.O., No. 231, Revenue, dated 28th March 1894, it will be seen that the annual allowance of Rs. 44-3-10, which had been granted for the performance of the service called "Asar-i-shariff" at Mailapur was made a life grant to Abbasee Begum on the basis of the Government Order, in the Political Department, quoted above; and the case therefore requires re-investigation with reference to G.O., No. 354, Political, of 4th June 1896.

3. From the history of the case given in Mr. Sturrock's * letter dated 31st July 1893, Ref. on No. 771-G and B I am inclined to think that the allowance should be viewed more as a service than a personal grant, and it is quite evident that it has all along been annexed to the actual service, whether in the family of the original grantee or otherwise.
