Separate Revenue
 (Stamps)

Sir,

In letter No. 958, dated June 7th, 1880, from the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce, to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, sanction was communicated to the appointment of a special officer to examine forged stamps. In paragraph 3 of the same letter it was stated that Mr. A. Pellier Professor of Botany and Chemistry in the Presidency College, Calcutta, had been nominated to this duty.

2. With reference to this letter, I am directed to state that the Commission of Stamps in these Provinces recently

 Mr. P. is requested to be disposed to be in the the no other matter of the
 that he no longer in any of the appliances.

3. I am therefore to enquire whether other officer has been appointed to succeed Mr. Pedlar as an expert to examine forged stamps, and to ask that with the permission of the Governor General in Council an early reply may be sent, as the case in which the opinion of an expert is now required may prove to be of some importance.

I have &c.

No. 13, REVENUE, 6TH JANUARY 1898.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following Proceedings of the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, dated Calcutta, the 27th December 1897, No. 5520-S.R. :—

Read—the following letter from J. O. MILLER, Esq., Secretary to Government, North-Western Provinces and Oudh (Separate Revenue—Stamps), to the Secretary to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, dated Allahabad, 1st December 1897, No. 385—XIII-524A. :—

In letter No. 958, dated 7th June 1880, from the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce, to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, sanction was communicated to the appointment of a special officer to examine forged stamps. In paragraph 3 of the same letter it was stated that Mr. A. Pedlar, Professor of Botany and Chemistry in the Presidency College, Calcutta, had been nominated to this duty.

2. With reference to this letter, I am directed to state that the Commissioner of Stamps in these Provinces recently had occasion to refer to Mr. Pedlar for an opinion as to the genuineness of certain stamps. In reply, Mr. Pedlar stated that he had been transferred to Patna and that he had done no stamp examination for years, and that he no longer had any of the necessary appliances.

3. I am, therefore, to enquire whether any other officer has been appointed to succeed Mr. Pedlar as an expert to examine forged stamps, and to ask that, with the permission of the Governor-General in Council, an early reply may be sent, as the case in which the opinion of an expert is now required may prove to be of some importance.

Read—the following letter from J. E. O'CONOR, Esq., Assistant Secretary to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, to the Secretary to the Government of the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, dated Calcutta, the 16th December 1897, No. 5445-S.R. :—

In reply to your letter No. 385, dated 1st December 1897, I am directed to say that the Professor of Chemistry and Chemical Examiner, Medical College, Calcutta, has been appointed to act as referee in special cases of stamp forgery in succession to Mr. Pedlar; and I am to suggest that references regarding forged stamps may be addressed to him.

Read—the following letter from H. H. RISLEY, Esq., C.I.E., Secretary to the Government of Bengal, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue (Lower Provinces), dated Calcutta, the 14th December 1897, No. 6207-S.R. :—

With reference to the correspondence ending with G.O., No. 118, dated the 3rd August 1880, regarding the appointment of Mr. A. Pedlar, then Professor of Botany and Chemistry in the Presidency College, Calcutta, as special officer for examining stamps of doubtful genuineness, I am directed to say that, as Mr. Pedlar is now no longer stationed in Calcutta, the Lieutenant-Governor has decided to appoint the Chemical Examiner to Government to be the special officer whose duty it is to examine
