Proceedings of the Board of Revenue

(Land Revenue).

Dated 13 April 1899

No. 1261 Misc.

Conf. No. 87

READ the following letter from R. Morris Esq., Collector, Krishna District, to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, dated 6 April 1899, No. 11 Conf.

The two years' probation upon which Mr. Kodayamallu Venkatarama Srinivasa Aiyangar was appointed Deputy Collector in this district expired with the 26 March 1899. I have now the honor to recommend his confirmation as Deputy Collector.

2. Within the period of his probation, he completed the tests required. The following are the references to the Fort Saint George Gazette in which the results were published

He underwent Survey Training in 1897 and received a certificate on the 29 September 1897 and he underwent the prescribed course of plan drawing and estimating last January.

3. I have in my periodical reports upon his progress given my opinion of his character and capabilities and have nothing further to add to what I have already said.

Resolution

The Collector's letter read above in which he recommends the confirmation of the Probationary Deputy Collector MR P. K. V. Srinivasa Aiyangar will be submitted for the orders of Government.

2. The Board supports the Collector's recommendation.

prescribed tests. For his opinion of Srinivasa Aiyangar Mr Morris refers back to the periodical reports submitted by him and he recommends that the D.C. Coll. may be confirmed. The Board of Rev. Supports this recommendation.

3. The following are extracts from Mr Morris' reports giving his opinion of Srinivasa Aiyangar: ~~and~~

"He takes an interest in his work and is anxious to have more to do. I consider him a promising young officer."

II

"... he has in him the making of a very good officer and I would like to see him confirmed in the Service. He has shown plenty of intelligence and sense in the drafts and papers of his I have seen."

III

"all that I have seen of his work"
