Proceedings of the Board of Revenue
(Revenue Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture),

Dated 2nd April 1897

No. 2315 Miscellaneous.

Read again the following B.P. No. 2036 No. dated 3-6-97. Land Revenue: W.S.

READ.—The following letter from the Collector of Anantapur, Reference on C. P. No. 989 dated 19th May 97:—

I have the honour to enquire whether the special test qualifications apply in the case of the Temporary Loans Revenue Inspectors.
The latter officers do not appear to be Revenue Inspectors in the strict sense of the term, as their enquiries extend only so far as the granting of loans is concerned. But if it is held that it does apply in these cases also, I submit for the consideration of the Board that these Revenue Inspectors

Inspectors may be exempted temporarily from passing these tests, so that they may draw the full pay attached to the posts.

Fully qualified men are not available in sufficient numbers to meet the sudden increase of work and in these hard times, it is no doubt hard to deny them the full pay attached to the posts.

Resolution No. 2036 this date 3-6-97.

The Collector will be informed that the special test qualifications apply in the case of temporary loans — Revenue Inspectors also.

2. In the circumstances stated in para 2 of the Collector's letter, these Revenue Inspectors will be exempted from passing the special tests prescribed for them, as long as their temporary appointments last, which is understood to be for about 3 months. But application applications in the prescribed form should be submitted specifying the names of the individuals and the periods for which their appointments will last.

Resolution.

The Board sanctions the ^{temporary} exemption of C. Ranga Charlu, Special Loans Revenue Inspector

Inspector Dharmavaram Saluk, from the Revenue and Accounts tests. The sanction of Government is requested for his exemption from the Survey test to enable him to draw the full pay (Rs 40) attached to his post for 8 days from the 6th September 1897.
