Read telegram from the Secretary of State (G.o. 6101).

Under Secretary.

The telegram read above relates to an appeal to the Privy Council preferred by the Rajas of Cochin against the judgment passed by the proprietrix of the Chicacole estate in the Vizagapatam District and a ruling under the Court of Wards in this appeal case. The Secretary of State states:- "Chicacole appeal postponed two days. I hear that respondent dead. Please telegraph reply as quickly as possible" The respondent referred to in the telegram is the Court's ward and it is a fact that she is dead. The Proceedings of the Court of Wards (G.O. 2681) contain orders on communications received from the agent of the proprietrix of Chicacole, Vizagapatam District were sent in circulation to the Honourable members. The file present in box No. 1 and may not yet returned.

Opinion that the Secretary of State may be informed that it is a fact that the respondent, the Court's ward, is dead.

Pursuit telegram is accordingly submitted.
