Proceedings of the Board of Revenue,
Sep. Rev. Misc. No. 852 d/ 5th March 1898.
(C. No. 2091.)

To Secy.

In proposing to send certain officers to the distillery school at Waltair, the Board of Revenue stated that they would be put to considerable expense in getting backwards and forwards, as the distillery was $2\frac{1}{2}$ miles from the town and from Waltair, and recommended the grant of a conveyance allowance of Rs. 25 a month to Inspectors and Asst. Inspectors and of Rs. 15 to Sub-Inspectors. The Govt placed the officers on deputation and authorized them to draw the usual deputation allowance of one-fifth ^{of} salary. *

2. The Acct-Genl then pointed out that no deputation allowance was granted to officers of other departments in similar circumstances, and requests ^{ed} a reconsideration of the order. The H.M. was of opinion a somewhat different footing, inasmuch as by attending the distillery school, they did not qualify for promotion as officers of the other departments did. A reference was accordingly made to the Govt. of India and its sanction to the grant of the deputation allowance was solicited.

3. That Govt replied that Salt & Abkari officers, being liable to transfer to any part of the Presidency, additional allowance might be claimed only, if expenses not involved in other departmental transfers were incurred. Enquiry was made whether such expenses were involved in the deputation to the distillery school.

4. With the current read above a statement of the expenditure incurred by each of the officers, who attended the distillery school is forwarded.

In an ordinary transfer an officer has to pay from his own pocket his house rent at his new station (unless supplied with free quarters), and charges for the maintenance of servants and means of conveyance; and he breaks up his establishment at the old station. In the present present case the deputation being but for a short time, ^{(about two months),} each officer paid house rent and retained his establishment, as usual, at his old place, and it appears equitable, therefore, that any expenditure incurred by him under the head of house rent, conveyance and additional servants at Waltair should be repaid to him. The charges under these three heads actually incurred are shown below:-

5. The H. M. thought that a rate should be fixed for each class of officer ^{such} as would cover his expenses. The Board was requested to do this, but has not done so.

There being but one Inspector at the distillery school, he may, it is thought, be paid Rs. 112, the amount actually expended by him. The average amount spent by an Asst. Inspector was slightly under Rs. 36, or to Rs. 50 if the ~~nature~~ native officers be left out. Two Sub-Inspectors incurred no expenditure and the average amount spent by the others was Rs. 29.

6. For orders as to the rates to be recommended to the Govt of India.

I think it is enough. After report on old to allow Insps & A. Insps recommendation for Rs 25 Rs 20 p.m. & Sub Insps + 15 - The case is a special one & should be Rs 15. treated specially - No doubt 21/3/8 India will give way if the case is properly put. The case is sent for training for the benefit of Govt, not for their own benefit; & should not be allowed to pass. We can only go by averages & to take individual expenses into account will cause more trouble than the money is worth

A draft order and letter to India are submitted below for approval.

2. The old recommendation was

was that a deputation allowance of one fifth salary should be sanctioned. But as the H. No. specially refers to Rs 25 & Rs 15 the point of these rates is omitted in the draft letter.

2. It was stated that by the terms of their service the officers of the Salt, Khair and Customs dep^t were liable to transfer to any part of the Presidency and that a claim for additional allowances existed only if the deputation in question involved the officers in ~~unusual~~ expenses which were not involved in a transfer on any other departmental duty.

I now point out that in the case of an ordinary transfer the officer ~~concerned~~ breaks up his establishment at his old station; but ~~then~~ ^{when an officer is deputed} ~~he~~ ^{is deputed} ~~in the circumstances~~ ^{under reference, this is not the case.} ~~as the deputation is~~ ^{The transfer is merely temporary & for a short time, and during} ~~ordinarily extends to~~ ^{about two months} ~~and during this period the officer is usually obliged~~ ^{to incur double expenditure at Malabar} ~~to incur double expenditure~~ ^{on such items as} ~~house-rent, conveyance~~ ^{house-rent, conveyance} ~~and additional servants.~~ ^{and additional servants.} In the opinion of H.E. it is but equitable that such add^l expenditure ~~should be made~~ ^{should be made} good to them. At the same time this Govt considers that it to make an allowance of what has been estimated to be ^{on the average} the add^l expense to which the classes of officers concerned are put by this deputation. In this way it has been judged that under G.O. 3868

it will be unnecessarily troublesome to take individual expenses into account and that the only correct plan is ~~to go by an average~~ ^{to provide} an allowance of Rs 25 a month to Inspectors and Assistant Inspectors and of Rs 15 to Sub Inspectors with ~~a fair allowance~~ ^{respecting their expenses}. I am to point out that as stated in para 3 of Mr Stokes's letter of 21st July last the officers ~~are~~ ^{are} sent for training not for their own benefit, but for the benefit of Govt, and therefore being a special case deserves exceptional treatment. In these circumstances I am to request that the Govt of India will be pleased to sanction the grant of the allowances ~~referred to above~~ ^{now proposed}.
