SUBJECT.

Proposed Grant of deputation allowances to officers of the Salt Abkari and Customs Department sent to the School at Waltair for training.

SIR,

I am directed to invite attention to the communication marginally noted,* and to request the favour of an early reply.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

Offg. Dy. Secretary to the Govt. of India.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue,
Sep. Rev. Misc. No.852 d/ 5th March 1898.
(C. No. 2091.)

To Secy.

In proposing to send certain officers to the distillery school at Waltair, the Board of Revenue stated that they would be put to considerable expense in getting backwards and forwards; as the distillery was 2½ miles from the town and from Waltair and recommended the grant of a conveyance allowance of Rs. 25 a month to Inspectors and Asst. Inspectors and of Rs.15 to Sub-Inspectors. The Govt placed the officers on deputation and authorized them to draw the usual deputation allowance of one-fifth of salary.

Para 3 of B.P.on page 4 of G.O. No. 291 d/ 3-5-97.

Para (i) of G.o ibid

2. The Acct-Genl then pointed out that no deputation allowance was granted to officers of other departments in similar circumstances, and requested a reconsideration of the order. The H.M. was of opinion that the Salt & Abkari officers stood on a somewhat different footing, inasmuchas by attending the distillery school, they did not qualify for promotion as officers of the other departments did. A reference was accordingly made to the Govt of India and its sanction to the grant of the deputation allowance was solicited. Letter No. 3869 dated 26-7-97 under ~~G.O. 4681 d/ 6-9-97.~~

3. That Govt replied that Salt & Abkari officers, being liable to transfer to any part of the Presidency, additional allowance might be claimed only, if expenses not involved in other departmental transfers were incurred. Enquiry was made whether such expenses were involved in the deputation to the distillery school. under G.O. ~~ibid.~~ 4681 6-9-97

4. With the current read above a statement of the expenditure incurred by each of the officers, who attended the distillery school is forwarded.

In an ordinary transfer an officer has to pay from his own pocket his house rent at his new station(unless supplied with.free quarters), and charges for the maintenance of servants and means of conveyance; and he breaks up his establishment at the old station. In the present present case the deputation being but for a short time (about two months), each officer paid house rent and retained his establishment, as usual, at his old place, and it appears equitable, therefore, that any expenditure incurred by him under the head of house rent, conveyance and additional servants at Waltair should be repaid to him. The charges under these three heads actually incurred are shown below:-

5. The H. M. thought that a rate should be fixed for each class of officer such as would cover his expenses. The Board was requested to do this, but has not done so. There being but one Inspector at the distillery school, he may, it is thought, be paid Rs. 112, the amount actually expended by him. The average amount spent by an Asst. Inspector was slightly under Rs.36, or to Rs.50 if the ~~nature~~ native officers be left out. Two Sub-Inspectors incurred no expenditure and the average amount spent by the others was Rs.29.

6. For orders as to the rates to be recommended to the Govt of India.

H.M.

I think it will be enough to allow Insp^rs & A.Insp^rs recommendation for Rs 25 Rs 20 Rs. & Sub Insp^rs 15- The case is a special one & should be treated specially - Govt of India will see why & the case is put up. The recommendation pertaining for the benefit of Govt, not for their own benefit; & should not be allowed to lose. We can only fix averages - to take individual expenses into account will cause more trouble than the money is worth

Sir,

I am directed to reply ~~with reference~~ to Mr Dawe's letter No 3687 Ex dated the 19th August 1897 regarding the grant of a deputation allowance to ~~the~~ Officers of the Salt Abkari and Customs Dep't ~~deputed~~ detailed to attend the distilling school at Waltair.

~~I am directed to request that for the reasons stated he hopes the Govt of India will be pleased to reconsider its decision.~~

under G.O. 4681 6-9-97

(28.5.98. did not rule against us They asked us)

Serial 1

2. It was stated in Mr Dane's letter that by the terms of their service the Officers of the Salt, Abkari and Customs Dept. were liable to transfer to any part of the Presidency and that a claim for additional allowances existed only if the deputation involved the officers in expenses which were not involved in a transfer on any other departmental duty.

I am to point out that in the case of an ordinary transfer the officer breaks up his establishment at his old station, but when an officer is deputed in the circumstances under reference, this is not the case. The deputation was for a short time, originally stated to be about two months; and during this period the officer is usually obliged to incur double expenditure at Waltair on such items as house-rent, conveyance and additional servants. In the opinion of H.E. it is but equitable that such add.l expenditure should be made good to them. At the same time this Govt considers that it and re-establishes himself at his new station to make an allowance of what has been estimated as the average the add.l expense to which the classes of officers concerned are put by this deputation. In this way it has been judged that it would be unnecessarily troublesome to take individual expenses into account and that the correct plan is to fix by average an allowance of

under G.O. 3868 26-11-97

Rs 25 a month to Inspectors and Assistant Inspectors and of Rs 15 to Sub Inspectors will be a fair allowance. I am to point out that as stated in para 3 of Mr Stokes's letter of 21st July last the Officers are sent for training not for their own benefit, but for the benefit of Govt, and therefore being a special case deserves exceptional treatment. In these circumstances I am to request that the Govt of India will be pleased to sanction the grant of the allowances now proposed
