Telegram from the Govt of India, R. and A Dept, dy 23rd March 1898 (Ema 2367 of 98).

Noli

With reference to the request made by this Govt to the Secy of State that the Govt of India to select and send out a competent botanist for employment in this Prest, the Govt of India now communicates by wire a telegram received by it from his Lordship stating that the Director of Kew recommends Mr T. F Bourdillon, Conservator of Forests, Travancore, for the appointment in question and desiring that if the recommendation be approved, Mr Bourdillon may be acquainted with the condition and his acceptance or non-acceptance telegraphed to his Lordship. The Govt of India accordingly enquires whether this Govt agrees to Mr Bourdillon's appointment appointment and if so whether he will accept the post.

2. Regarding Mr Bourdillon's qualifications for the appointment there is, it is submitted, not much information in the office. He is an F.C.S and Mr Lawson in July 1894 wrote of him as follows:-

"At Quilon, I met Mr Bourdillon, Conservator of Forests to the Travancore Govt and travelled with him for over a fortnight. From Mr Bourdillon I obtained great assistance; he not only knows the country thoroughly well (he practically arranged my tour for me) but he has also a more extensive acquaintance with the trees of his district than any Forest Officer I ever met with, (& with the exception of Sir Dietrich Brandis and Mr Gamble"

Again in August 1895, Mr Lawson in consultation with Dr King of Calcutta suggested that Mr Bourdillon might be entrusted with the botanical Survey of Travancore but the Govt at the time thought that the work might well be postponed until the arrival of a successor to Mr Lawson.

3. Since Mr Thiselton-Dyer thinks that Mr Bourdillon will do for the work it is perhaps unnecessary to further enquire into the latter's qualifications. A draft telegram to the Resident in Travancore and Cochin is accordingly submitted below for approval.

Note

Mr Thurston's reply to the above covering D.O. is submitted. He says

(1) that he does not know Mr Bourdillon personally

(2) that Mr B C Mr Thurston believes) possesses no special scientific attainments

(3) that Mr Lawson spoke well of his botanical work in Travancore

(4) that the Specimens collected by Mr Bourdillon for the Madras herbarium are good and he is undoubtedly a good Collector

(5) that Mr Shebbeare-Dyer spoke about him to Mr Thurston just before the latter left England

(6) that so far as Mr Thurston can see Mr Bourdillon should do very good work first because
