Note.

In para 28 (Page 19) of the Forest administration report for 1895-96, the Board of Revenue said that the increase in the number of cases of illicit grazing in Cuddapah was the result of the illicit browsing of 'Goats'. The Govt, in para 14 (Page 7) of the order reviewing the report requested the Board of Revenue to state whether further provision could be not be made for P.T.O.

SUBJECT.

Reporting to Govt with reference to para 14 of G.O. No. 370 dated 21.5.97, that the Collector of Cuddapah & the Conservator C.C have selected certain areas in the Dt in which the browsing of goats is permitted and hoping that with this concession the no of prosecutions will diminish.

C 2614/98

for goat browsing in the Cuddapah District in accordance with the Scheme approved in B.P. No 602 dt 11.10.95 (in Volume put up) The Board of Revenue now says that the Collector & the Conservator have now selected certain areas in which the browsing of goats is to be permitted and hopes that this concession will diminish the number of prosecutions for illicit grazing.

REVENUE BOARD OFFICE. MADRAS.

(LAND REVENUE.)

Read again Board's Proceedings Forest No. 278, dated 14th July 1897 communicating to all Collectors and Conservators of Forests, with remarks, Government Order reviewing the Forest Administration Report of the Madras Presidency for 1895-96.

Read Endorsement from the Collector of Cuddapah, dated 20th March 1898, forwarding to the Board letter from the Conservator of Forests, Central Circle, dated 12th February 98, No. 1355 proposing to throw open certain reserves for goat browsing in certain taluks of Cuddapah District.

Reference Do. 149, dated 30.3.98.

In compliance with the orders of Government contained in para 14 of G.O. No. 370 dated 21st May 1897 reviewing the Forest Administration Report for 1895-96

the Board resolves to report as follows:-

The Government suggested that provision might be made for goat browsing in the Cuddapah District in order to obviate the growing tendency to prosecute for illicit grazing. The Collector and Conservator have now selected certain areas in which the browsing of goats is to be permitted, and it is hoped that with this concession the number of prosecutions will diminish.
