The Collector reports that the guard was inadequate,and was not in charge of a Head Constable as it should have been, and that on the night in

5. A portion of the property lost, viz., Rs.57-3-0, has been recovered and two individuals to whose possession three of the stolen notes were traced, were convicted and sentenced to four years' rigorous imprisonment each. The Superintendent of Police has reported that the changes of recovering the balance viz., Rs. 268-3-1, are remote and the Collector, therefore recommends that the same may be written off the accounts.
