In replying the above should be quoted.

READ letter from the Collector of Godavari. Cur No. 194/98, dated 8th March 1898. 35/3

Reference thereon No. 40, dt 24th March 1898.

Following the analogy of Article 830 of the Civil Service Regulations, Mr. V. Seshachalam Pantulu should, during joining time, draw pay and pensionary contribution from Pittapur funds, his sanctioned salary being treated as Rs 64-4-7 per mensem for the period.

2. The appointment of Mr. V. Seshachalam Pantulu as Tawadar of Karapa is approved subject to the sanction of Government, which is now requested.

In Government Order No. 3005 Revenue dated 14th June 1897 sanction was accorded for Mr. V. Seshachalam Pantulu's appointment as Sheristadar of the Pittapur Manager's office, the sanctioned salary being Rs 100 per mensem. He was at the same time, allowed to continue in the service of the Tanjellamudi Estate until his special work in connection with it was finished. He was released on the 29th January 1898: and when he

he reported himself to the Collector of Godavari, that officer, acting apparently in the interest of the Pittapur Ward, posted him as Karapa Tanadar, the sanctioned salary of the post being only Rs 68.7.2 per mensem. (80-4551)
The conditions of the Civil Service Regulations are satisfied in this case.

3. The Collector is requested to report whether Mr. A. Subbarayudu, whose loan to the Comptroller for employment as Tanadar of Karapa was sanctioned in the above-quoted Government Order, has been relegated to his post under Government.

4. The Court presumes that the Collector intends to keep Mr. A. Subbarayudu as Sheristadar of the Pittapur Managers' office: if so, the sanction of Government therefor should be applied for inasmuch as the sanction already accorded was only temporary.

Submitted with the remark that there is no account objection to the transfer. If the Government is satisfied that the case falls under rule 2 of clause IV of article 806 of the Civil Service Regulations, there is no objection to Seshalhalam Pantulu being granted the salary proposed.
