To The Collector of Southarcot &c.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that while I was recently holding my jamabandy Camp at Sankarapuram, the Tahsildar brought to my notice that a misappropriation of Rupees fifty had taken place. The Tahsildar was immediately asked by me to institute an enquiry into the matter. I have now received a report from him with the records of enquiry held by him. The facts of the case are very briefly these: The village Munsiff of Irungolam vattam, Kallakurichi Taluq sent a remittance on the 11-1-28. Three of the village menials of this Vattam, for the village of Irungolam along with the remittances for the two other villages of this vattam. The remittance relating to the Irungolam village amounted, according to the village accounts Rs. 13

and

and B and the Taluq Head Accountants' number book K, to Rs. 313-2-7 which Boot was credited for only Rs. 263-2-7 as per cash Chitta maintained by the Nagadi Clerk, the Sheriff's Chitta and Village account No. 15, in which latter accounts, the original entry of Rs. 313-2-7 has been suspiciously corrected so as to reduce the credit to Rs. 263-2-7. There has thus been a misappropriation of Rs. 50 and from the records of enquiry, I have strong grounds to believe that the Taluk Nagadi Clerk, Ramachandra Rao and the Assistant Sheriff Immigesa Pillai are guilty of it. I therefore suspended them both pending further enquiry into the matter and I shall communicate the result of the further enquiry later on.
