To

His Excellency
Sir Anthony Elibank Havelock G.C.M.G., G.C.I.E., Governor-in-Council of Fort St. George,
Madras.

THROUGH THE INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF POLICE, MADRAS.

The humble Petition of WILLOUGHBY SAMUEL MARSHALL, Inspector of Police, Salem.

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHEWETH:—

That your Petitioner on the 11th February 1897 submitted to Your Excellency a petition, a copy of which is hereto attached, praying to be appointed a Deputy Collector on probation, and that he received the following G. O. dated 3rd April 1897 No.1811 Mis:— "Mr. Marshall will be informed that the present circumstances are such that he cannot be appointed as Deputy Collector on probation".

2. That your Petitioner has now appeared for, and passed the Revenue Test, Higher Grade.

3. Your Petitioner therefore humbly prays that Your Excellency will be graciously pleased to again consider his case and appoint him a Deputy Collector on probation.

And your Petitioner will, as in duty bound, ever pray.

W. S. Marshall

Inspector of Police.

SALEM,
7th February 1898.

To

His Excellency

Sir Arthur Elibank Havelock,

G. C. M. G., G. C. I. E.,

GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL,

Fort Saint George,

MADRAS.

Through the Inspector-General of Police Madras.

The humble petition of Willoughby Samuel Marshall, Inspector of Police, Salem.

Most Respectfully Showeth:—

That your humble Petitioner is an Inspector of Police, in Salem District. He was born in july 1866, and entered the Police Force in August 1889, as a 4th Class Inspector, and has since risen to the rank of 2nd Class Inspector, in which position he now serves in the Town of Salem.

2. Your humble Petitioner is the eldest son of William Marshall, who, after serving Her Majesty for over Thirty years in the Ordnance Department, India, received a commission from Her Gracious Majesty and retired with the rank of Honorary Major.

3. Your humble Petitioner, being only a Matriculate of the Madras University, petitioned Your Excellency's Government and received the following G. O. dated 30th April 1895 No. 328:—"Mr. W. S. Marshall will, as a special case, be permitted to appear for the Special Tests prescribed for the post of Deputy Collector". In October 1896 your humble Petitioner appeared for and passed the Criminal Higher Judicial Test. Your humble Petitioner having previous to this passed the Third Class Vernacular Test in Tamil, he has now only to pass the Revenue Higher and accounts Tests, which he will appear for next October, in order to complete the Tests prescribed for the post of Deputy Collector.

4. Your humble Petitioner understands that appointments of Deputy Collectors, on probation, are occasionally made from selected candidates, who have not completed the entire Tests prescribed. Your humble Petitioner, having passed the required Criminal Judicial Test, feels that it will be easier for him to pass the Revenue and accounts Tests while serving in the Department and gaining a practical knowledge of the subjects he has to pass in; and he therefore, humbly prays that your Excellency may be graciously pleased to appoint him a Deputy Collector, on probation, until he completes the Tests prescribed.

5. Your humble Petitioner prays for an appointment in the Revenue Department, as Deputy Collector, with the object of bettering his prospects. During the period of seven and half years that he has been in the Police Department, your humble Petitioner has striven to do his duty and give satisfaction to his superiors; and how far he has succeeded will be seen from his record in the Department. Your humble Petitioner has, however, now, at the early age of thirty, only an increase of Rs. 50 to his present salary to look forward to in the Department in which he serves; and he feels that this can hardly he said to be a sufficient inducement to the son of an officer who has served Her Majesty long and faithfully in this Country, and who, through his good work and ability, rose from the rank of a private soldier to that of Honorary Major. Your humble Petitioner has tried to follow the example set him by his father by doing his duty faithfully, and he therefore prays that your Excellency will be graciously pleased, in disposing of this petition, to take into consideration his father's services, along with his own humble exertions to get on. Should Your Excellency be pleased to confer on your humble Petitioner the appointment he prays for, he will ever as before strive to do all in his power to do his duty faithfully and honestly.

6. Your humble Petitioner respectfully submits this, his petition, through his Departmental Superiors, and as in duty bound will ever pray.

SALEM,
11th February 1897.

W. S. MARSHALL,
Inspector of Police.

forwarded to the District Magistrate for favorable consideration & favor of his recommendation.
During the time Mr. Marshall has worked under me here he has given me every satisfaction & I feel sure that in the event of his being appointed a Magistrate, he will give as much satisfaction as he has done as a Police Officer. His character is excellent & he enjoys the confidence & respect of all the officers under whom he has served & of the public. He has now passed the Revenue Higher Test for which he worked very hard in addition to performing his own duties & I shall be very glad to hear that he has been successful in obtaining the post of Deputy Collector which he hopes to get.
