NOTE FOR THE SECRETARY.

A list of the Secy of State's despatches remaining unanswered is submitted.

As regards Mr Rogers' papers it is not clear what should be entered in the remarks Col. Last time it was stated that "reply will be transmitted shortly" (G.O. No 133) dy 13th March 1898.) The papers are still in Circ" with H.E. and a reminder sent to the P.S.C. on the point has not yet been replied to

In the case of the last paper it seems it is submitted sufficient to say that the "Reply is being despatched". The paper has been
