Letter from the A.G. <sup>1022</sup> (Civ 14-3-98) (2135)

To Secretary

Please see the Opinion of the Advocate-General at the place marked A on page 7 of the file under G.O.
778. He stated that the

<sup>15-2-98</sup> Collector could not legally recover the expenses incurred in effecting a partition.
From para 3 of the Current, however, it appears that the D.C. Court has directed the parties to bear the charges.
It is proposed to advance the amount from the General revenues in the first instance and to recover it subsequently from the parties.

2. In the concluding sentence of para 2 of the Board's Props the Board requests that the period during which Govt officers were employed in the duty in question may be treated as an interruption of duty falling under exception (2) to Art 46.3 of the C.S.R. Submitted that

463. An interruption in the service of an officer entails forfeiture of the service, except in the following case

x x x x x transfer to non-militizing service or establishment under Govt control.
