Read official Memorandum from the Revenue Department Fort Saint George No. 83 dated 1st April 1898

Resolution

Replying to the official Memorandum from Government No. 83 dated 1st April 1898, regarding the investiture of Mr. F. S. White with the powers of an Inspector temporarily the Board begs to report that it recommended this course as the Assistant Inspector in charge of the Arni circle was at the time it made the proposal engaged in supervising the Ganja harvest on the Javadi

Javadi hills and the temporary deputation of Mr. White was the only Convenient arrangement it Could make for his relief. As the harvest is now over the Assistant Inspector will be able to attend to the Cases and Mr. White may return to Palmaner. The necessity for empowering him therefore no longer exists.

C.no. 2108 of 1898

Extract from the letter of the Dy. Commr. C.D.
No. 887 of 19-2-98.

Para 23 - The Insp.r has the rest of his circle to look after with 11 Sub. Insp.rs Ranges and two Parties, and this together with Abkari sales recently held or takes his time off the work in hand on the hills. As a special case therefore, I think he should at least for one month from now or perhaps six weeks at most be relieved entirely of the duties of his circle outside the Javadi hills in order that the whole of his time and the attention may be given to the Hills alone. In anticipation of the Bd's approval therefore I am directing him not to leave the Hills until he has personally satisfied himself that every tola of ganja is in the Store house at Kannambady

Para. 24. In the meantime I beg the Board will approve of my placing the senior Assistant Inspector of the Ennore Circle where work is now light temporarily in charge of the Arni Circle exclusive of the Javadi Hills and Kannyambady Store shed, until at least the 31st prosimo.

Board's Resolt thereon - No 859 of 6-3-98.

Para 12. Arrangements have been made for the relief of the Inspector by deputing the Asst.

Asst Inspector of the Chittoor circle to assist him, and Govt is being asked as a special case to grant him powers temporarily to enquire into cases.
