No. 0297

REVENUE DEPT

To

His Excellency,

The Governor in Council

Fort Saint George

Madras.

The humble appeal petition of Krajati Venkatrawayya, of Chennanayinipatta Kavalipalam, Nellore District.

CHIEF SECRETARY'S OFFICE
-3 MAY 1898
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

Most Respectfully Sheweth

In submitting herewith copy of the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Separate Revenue) Mis No 402 dated 5-4-98 as well as copy of order of the Dy Collector dated 11-2-98 on my appeal petition concerning the case and as well copy of my appeal petition dated 30-3-98 to the Board of Revenue, I beg most respectfully to appeal on the following grounds-

1 As I have given all my grounds of appeal in my appeal petition to the Board of Revenue copy of which is herein enclosed for your Excellency's kind perusal, I have not re-capitulated them here-

2 The Board have been pleased to say that they are not going to hear the case on further remission as it was already decreed by the Dy Collector -

3 Because, I did not receive justice from the Lords of the Dy Collector: who confirmed the order of the Tahsildar without examining the accounts as he ought to have done under the rules of the Income tax act, I was obliged to send in an appeal petition to the Board of Revenue -

4 If the Board simply say as a manner that they cannot interfere in the matter, how are we (poor subjects) to receive justice - the only request I make was, that my accounts may be examined & case fixed according to the Income -

5 I pray therefore that your Excellency may graciously be pleased to peruse the whole Correspondence connected with the case and issue orders to examine my accounts and then fix the case but not at random- and that your Excellency pleased order to appoint a Commissioner to examine the accounts & fix the case, I am ready to pay the costs of the Commission - orders are issued, I shall attend before your Excellency, with my accounts & Vouchers for which act of justice & kindness I shall ever pray

Masulipatam;
27-4-98

I Dy Servant,
Most Humbly Sheweth,
Your Excellency's most Obedient & Humble Servant

Petition from Majoti Venkataramayya
Kistna Dt. dd 27.4.98 (C.No 3281)

To Secy:-

The petitioner appears to have been originally assessed to pay an income tax of Rs 35; but on submitting an objection petition the Tahsildar reduced it to Rs 28. Under Section 27 of the Income Tax Act (II of 1886) he submitted a revision petition to the Dy Collector, who confirmed the tax, as he had reason to suspect that the account books produced were recently written up and that even assuming them to be genuine the petitioner's transactions should have amounted to Rs 19,000 per annum. The petitioner appeals to Govt against this order.

2. Submitted that no valid grou is shown for interference. - Draft order is put upon the back of the current for appeal
