My dear Sir

I submit herewith for the approval of His Excellency the Governor the proposals for grade promotions in the Salt, Akhori and Customs Department which it is usual to make about the commencement of the official year.

2. There are no vacancies among Assistant Commissioners or Inspectors of the first grade. Of the two vacancies in the second grade I propose that one should be given to Mr. S. W. Rose, whose work is very highly reported on by his Deputy Commissioner. He will pass over Mr. Luxa who has lately been reported for total neglect of his work in almost Every ²branch. The other vacancy I propose to leave unfilled for the present. One or more acting Assistant Commissioners will have to be chosen shortly from the men in this grade, and should one of them prove a success, I shall suggest the conferring of the vacancy on him.

3. Among fourth grade Inspectors I propose the promotion of Messrs V. Sadagopachari, N. Seshagiri Rao, S. Aramunda Ayyangar, R. M. Brooks, R. Mangasha Rao, J. G. Everett and R. P. Gillard. The first of these officers was passed over last year as he had not given satisfaction. He is reported to have since managed the Vedaranniyam Circle with credit and I therefore recommend his promotion. The others are all reported to have done, and to be doing, good work, Messrs Brooks and Gillard in particular. Their promotion will involve the supersession of rather a large number of officers whom I will deal with in order as they stand on the list.

4. R. R. in. Gopal Rao has been more than once passed over for bad work. He thoroughly neglected the last circle he had to do with (handyal) and has been on leave ever since. In the circumstances, I am not prepared to recommend his promotion.

5. R. R. V. R. Rangasami Aiyar was in trouble lately over some works which were not carried out according to orders and his Deputy Commissioner does not report favourably of him. I propose to instruct the Deputy Commissioner to look thoroughly into his work at his next inspection of his circle and to let his promotion to lie over till October at any rate.

6. J. J. F. Horton has had a very light circle and has not been much of a success in it. He is now on furlough. I propose to try him in a circle of some importance on his return and to recommend his promotion if he succeeds.

G.O. No. 2109 of 16th May 98.

G.O.	No.	Department.

Mr. R. R. V. Govinda Kudaliar was poorly in the India Circle and the Deputy Commissioner Southern Division under whom he is now working, is not prepared to recommend his promotion. He has just been hoped for disobeying departmental rules by travelling without ticket and not keeping a horse for six months. I therefore think he should be passed over.

Mr. Campbell has narrowly escaped dismissal for con turned downness.

Mr. Harpur is reported to have neglected about every circle he has held charge of.

Mr. R. R. C. Kuffusami Aiyar has only recently been reduced to his present place in the list.

Mr. Kaundarya has been on furlough for some time. The Deputy Commissioner Southern Division is so far dissatisfied with him that he protests against his being sent back to the West Coast. I therefore propose to let the question of his promotion stand over, but would not keep back

Mr. Everett who stands next to him in the list and who has earned great credit by his management of the Depot.

4. Mr. Gillard's position stands on a different footing to the rest and I shall not therefore discuss in detail the merits or demerits of the men who stand between him and Mr. Everett. They are none of them officers of any special ability. As H. E. is aware, the number of men in the department from among whom a selection can be made for promotion to Assistant Commissioners' posts is very limited and I expect that very shortly I shall be reduced to recommending the trial of Mr. Hyde the last Inspector in the third grade. It is therefore necessary to push on such men in the lower grades as are fit for these places. Mr. Gillard is a gentleman by birth and has shown marked ability in his work. There is no officer between him and Mr. Thide, with the exception perhaps of Mr. Holland, about whom I am uncertain, who will ever be an Assistant Commissioner. I therefore consider it necessary that Mr. Thide should be promoted, even though he does supersede officers who have earned their ordinary grade promotion as Inspectors, to a grade from which he can reasonably be promoted to act as Assistant Commissioner when occasion offers.

5. I do not propose any promotions of first grade Assistant Inspectors at present as I have several proposals from Deputy Commissioners for reductions in the number of circles under consideration.

6. The promotion should be made with effect from 1st April as usual. I shall be glad if you will let me know the gazette in which they will appear.
